Erasmus Mundus Scholarship Application Form for Entry to Global Markets, Local Creativities (GLOCAL) Erasmus Mundus IntM Programme in September 2025

Application Information

You can access an editable version of this form by going to File and then Download – please ensure you download this in .docx format. Complete this form carefully, and then sign and date it, save the form as a PDF file, and upload it to your GLOCAL application along with all other supporting documentation required:

- This form, with all fields completed and with your preferred study track clearly marked
- CV (any format is acceptable, Europass is preferred)
- Two supporting references on headed paper
    - Must be dated within 24 months from the date of submission of the application
    - Must be on institutional headed paper or with an official stamp. A reference can be submitted directly to erasmusreferences@glasgow.ac.uk from the referee's institutional address. References will not be accepted from a personal email address
    - Must be signed with an electronic or wet-ink signature. A typed name is not sufficient
    - At least one of the two references should be an academic reference. One may be a professional reference where it is not possible to obtain two academic references
- Transcripts of all university-level academic studies to date (undergraduate and any postgraduate studies) in both original language and, if applicable, in an official English translation. Studies earlier than university are not required
- Degree Certificates of all university-level academic studies to date (undergraduate and any postgraduate studies) in both original language and, if applicable, in an official English translation
- Proof of English-language proficiency (see GLOCAL English Language Requirements online information)
- Colour scan of current passport photo page (candidates with multiple nationalities must decide at the application stage under which one nationality to apply)

IMPORTANT: Scholarship applications that do not have all the above by the scholarship deadline will be treated as incomplete and will not be considered.

Where applicants are completing their undergraduate qualifications in the year of their application, official transcripts to-date, in original language of instruction and, if applicable, an official English translation are acceptable. Applicants completing their undergraduate qualifications may submit their official final transcripts and degree certificates by the offer conditions deadline if they are made an offer of study. All other documentation must still be provided by the scholarship deadline.
